With dark clouds, it is best to leave them uncolored. If an evening effect is desired, use no blue color, but tint the spaces between the dark clouds with yellow and run a light flesh tint around the edges of the clouds, shading into the yellow. Until skill is acquired in laying in colors, it is best to use only clear blue at the zenith, shading to colorless at the horizon. Having finished the sky, turn the slide so the picture will be right side up and put in the greens for trees and foliage. A medium.wash of green, afterwards touched up with yellow in the highlights and blue in the shadows, gives an effect of depth which is very desirable. Most of the greens in nature contain much yellow, especially in spring. Warm brown for roads, walls or warm toned rocks, stone color for others and your slide is nearly done. Water looks blue when it reflects a blue sky. The sea should usually be tinted blue and streaked while wet with brown or sepia and green, blending the light washes so as to give a pleasantly varied effect. Faces and hands should be tinted the color of flesh, a second coat being applied to cheeks to deepen the tint, if the face is large enough. The clothing should be tinted to show its natural colors. It is always best to guard against using too much color. One s aim should...
