Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Encounter with logos, Japanese, Nahuatl and Egyptian are similar languages. Written and author by Erik De La Torre Stahl(Erik Stahl) Copyrights 1986 Some music we can see in some Mayan s murals where they are using instruments like horns, trumpets and flutes. Similar Writing and meaning between Japanese, Old Egyptian and Nahuatl from Mexico. In the language of Japanese, Old Egyptian and Nahuatl from Mexico are lots of words with the same meaning and the similar writing. Example; Japanese: Tori means bird. Egyptian: Tot means bird Nahuatl: Totol means bird Japanese: Ka means house Egyptian: Ka means house Nahuatl: Ka means house Playing with another languages like German, English Maya. German: Konig means house English: King means Who rule the kingdom, better say king Maya: Kin means King The world in Egyptian TUTANKAMON means the bird that lives in Amon Tut or Tot=bird an= in ka= house Amon= Amon The question, why the language of Japanese, Egyptian Nahuatl are similar. Probably these civilizations were together as one continent before the big flood arrive. In ancients stories they mention the name of Noah in the Bible (o biblws, that means The Book), a humble man chosen by the God of Abraham. Noah build an arc by the instructions of God for the big flood that will be vanished the world. If we check the name of Noah and we move the letters of Noah a little we have Naho Well, I m playing to much with the names, but think about it. There is a legend in the Nahoas (Old Mexican culture) that says in the book of Bernal Diaz Del Castillo; .And the Nahoas arrive to the Indian...
