Johnny Jeffs--Please, teacher, a dromedary is a two-masted camel.--Houston Post. In our recent review of the motor boat business, we referred with pleasure to the fact that though American shipbuilders in general were not able to compete with foreign builders in prices, yet motor boats are an exception to the rule. The building of motor boats has made such strides in this country that the United States now leads the world in this branch of boat building. A pleasant evidence of this is afforded in the recent shipment from Michigan by the Michigan Steel Boat Co. of a motor boat de luxe...
